- You have a right to cancel this contract (as a "consumer") and further information is given below

Your right to cancel (Consumers only)

- Subject to the above, you have a right to cancel this contract without giving any reason. The cancellation period starts when we enter into a contract with you and will end 14 days after you have taken possession of course materials we are supplying as part of this contract.
- In order to exercise your right to cancel, you must inform us of your decision by a clear statement (e.g. a phone call, letter sent by post, or email). You may use the attached cancellation form but you do not have to. You are advised to obtain proof that you have informed us of your decision.
- To meet the cancellation deadline, you should let us know that you wish to cancel before the cancellation period has expired. If you want to put this in writing, this can be sent to us at the above address or by email.

Effects of cancellation

- If you cancel this contract we will reimburse you all that you have paid us, subject to certain possible deductions set out below. In order for us to commence the training (which forms this contract) within the cancellation period, we need a specific request from you to do so. Our enrolment form, which has already been completed by you, contains that specific request. This will mean that you will still have a right to cancel but:
  1. You will have to pay our labour costs for work done up to the point when you inform us of your decision to cancel.
  2. We will not collect or remove any materials already provided to you, unless we have offered to do so.
  3. You may return materials to us at the above address and at your own expense within 14 days of informing us of your decision to cancel, unless this was offered by us.
  4. We may reduce any reimbursement to take into account any loss in value of the goods caused by any handling by you.
- We will make the reimbursement to you without any undue delay and not later than:
  - a. 14 days after the day that we received the course materials we supplied back from you, or....
  - b. (If earlier) 14 days after the day you provide evidence that you have returned the course materials, or....
  - c. If there were no course materials supplied, 14 days after the day on which we were informed about your decision to cancel this contract.

We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction unless you have expressly agreed otherwise. In any event you will not incur any fees as a result of the reimbursement. We may withhold reimbursement until we have received course materials back if requested, or evidence of having sent back the goods (course materials), whichever is the earliest.

Brooksby Melton College Cancellation Policy

- This policy does not affect your statutory rights shown above.
- If you wish to cancel or transfer a booking for a short course, written confirmation is to arrive at Brooksby Melton College's, Short course department a minimum of 15 days before the commencement of the course. If a written cancellation or transfer request is received 14 days or less before the commencement of the course, any fees paid in advance will not be refundable, and you will still be liable for any fees invoiced. You would then be required to pay any replacement course fee in full.
- The College retains the right to amend or cancel any course and ideally you will be notified 14 days prior to the course planned start date if a cancellation must occur. In that case, and in the event that a mutually acceptable replacement course cannot be arranged, a full refund of the course fees will be issued. Similarly, in the event of an "on the day" cancellation due to unforeseen and "irreparable" circumstances, the same remedies are applicable.
- We will not be liable for any losses (including, but not limited to, travel and accommodation costs) arising as a consequence of any modification or cancellation of courses as set out above and beyond the cost of the course fee.

Payment of Deposits

- Where requested or agreed, a non-refundable deposit (*) will be payable by the customer.
- (*) The only exception to the above being where you request course cancellation within the statutory 14 day cancellation period.
